CRISTIAM RAMOS

BORN: MEXICO CITY 1979

Cristiam is one of the most unique and creatively talented artists in the world today. Creating artwork on out of the ordinary surfaces and with non-typical mediums are his specialty. Some examples are the recreations of masterpieces painted on the wings of real butterflies, portrait made out of Denim Jeans, 3 dimensional portraits created with only candy, portraits of pop culture icons "painted" with toothpaste and Oil paintings and sculptures with a unique style.

He has been the recipient of numerous international art awards and 2 World Records for his unusual and amazing artwork and his pieces are featured in many Ripley's Believe It Or Not Museums around the world.

Originally from Mexico, Cristiam has resided in the U.S. area for over 20 years. His constant search for artistic originality motivates him to seek innovative ways to express himself through his artwork. Through his creations, Cristiam aspires to motivate others to set life goals for themselves and to consequently live extraordinary lives that are inspiring to others.

His exemplary talents and abilities combined with his kind and caring nature, consistently elevate him and his contributions to the art world and to humanity as well.

“ Since I was 5 years old I liked to paint, and I loved to play and experiment with new materials, over time I realized that I was passionate about creating unique and different art from others. Now that it characterizes me as an artist is that originality of my work and that I am always looking for new ways to express myself through my art. ”

Since 2001 his artistic works have been acquired by Ripley's "Believe it or not" to be exhibited in museums around the world such as Japan, India, England, Australia, Canada, and New York.
